

Guided Writing

Reading

1 Look at these signs. Where would you see these?

2 Read the e-mail from Macarena. Which rules does she mention?

3 Read the sentences and write T (true) or F (false).

- 1 Macarena is starting a new school.
- 2 She thinks all the rules are silly.
- 3 You can't use your cell phone in school.
- 4 Macarena was eating an apple in the classroom.

Language

Rules

We use can't and have to to talk about rules.

4 Write sentences with can't and have to for the signs in exercise 1.

- 1 You can't run in the hallway.
- 2
- 3
- 4
- 5
- 6

Pronouns and determiners

When we are talking about something we often use a pronoun or determiner the second or third time we talk about it, instead of repeating the original word.

5 Look at these examples from the e-mail and answer the questions.

- 1 I started my new school today. It's OK ...
What does it's refer to?
a the school b today
- 2 ... we can't run in the hallway, but that's good.
What does that's refer to?
a the hallway b the rule
- 3 We can't use our phones in class, but we can use them during recess.
What does them refer to?
a cell phones b lessons

6 Choose the correct pronoun or determiner to complete each sentence.

- 1 Students can't run in the hallway. It / Them / They must walk.
- 2 Visitors have to go to the reception when they arrive. It's / That's / They're next to the front entrance.
- 3 We have to be quiet. It's / That's / Them because there is an exam in the school.

Writing

7 Write an e-mail to Macarena telling her about the rules in your school.

CHECKLIST

REMEMBER TO

- use can't and have to.
- include three rules or more.
- use pronouns and determiners to refer to things.