Number the places in the order the bus passes them.

Welcome to the World2day San Francisco sightseeing tour. You all have a map of the city, and here is the route of our tour.

We're at Fisherman's Wharf—can you find that on your map? It's on San Francisco Bay, where it says START HERE! First, we go along the waterfront, and then we drive into Chinatown. From there, we go up Nob Hill—it's the most famous hill in San Francisco and it has great views over the city. We're going up by bus, but you can also go up by cable car. We stop by Grace Cathedral at the top of the hill and you can get out and take pictures. Then we get back on the bus and go across town to Golden Gate Park. It's huge, over four square kilometers, and it goes all the way to the Pacific Ocean. It's beautiful and there's lots to do there. But I'm afraid there isn't time to walk around the park today because next we're off to the Golden Gate Bridge. We stop there so you can take pictures. Back on the bus, we drive east along the bay, and finally we're back where we started at Fisherman's Wharf.
