

Teenage life

1 Reading

Read the interviews of two teenagers below. Do you dress like either of them?

● EXTREME FASHIONS ●

Dan, also known as Misery Shadow, is 14 years old and a goth. He comes from Oxford in the UK.

Q Can you describe to me what you are wearing?

A I'm wearing black baggy trousers, a black Marilyn Manson T-shirt and black boots. I'm also wearing black eyeliner, black nail varnish and black lipstick.

Q When did you start dressing like this?

A I started wearing black baggy trousers with a friend at school when I was 12. In town we saw some goths hanging around and they looked really cool with white faces and black make-up so we saved up our pocket money and bought eyeliner and lipstick.

Q What do your parents think?

A My parents don't really like me wearing these clothes, but they don't stop me. I can't wear make-up when we go out as a family, though. I changed my name to Misery Shadow, but my parents and teachers still call me Dan.

Q Do you spend a lot of money on your clothes?

A No. I don't have many clothes and when I do need to buy something, I usually get it from a charity shop.

Yumi is 15 years old and comes from Hiroshima, Japan. She is a 'ganguro girl' which means 'black face girl' because she has a very dark suntan.

Q Can you describe to me what you are wearing?

A I'm wearing a pink miniskirt with a matching pink top and knee-high suede platform boots. I am wearing false eyelashes, white eye shadow, some glitter on my cheeks and pink lipstick.

Q When did you start dressing like this?

A About a year ago. My best friend started to dress like this and I thought she looked really cool.

Q What do your parents think?

A My mother thinks it is awful. She doesn't like the way I look or dress. I like to have a dark suntan, but most Japanese women like to have very pale skin. When I dyed my hair blond a couple of months ago, my parents wouldn't speak to me for three days!

Q Do you spend a lot of money on your clothes?

A Yes. I love shopping for clothes and make-up. And I spend a lot of money at the hairdresser's.
