

Unit 5 Worksheet 6

verb + indirect / direct object

Remember:

verb + person (object pronoun) + thing.

I'll give you a map. / She bought Jay a present.

or

verb + thing + for/to + person (object pronoun).

I'll give a map to you. / She bought a present for Jay.

1 Complete the dialogue with these words.

you the way something mother her a ticket a present a map

KRISTIN Can we stay in Covent Garden a bit longer?

LEYLA Yes, I want to buy (1) for my (2)

CARRIE Okay, but how will you get back to the hotel?

KRISTIN We'll ask someone (3)

CARRIE I know. I'll get you (4) Wait here.

LEYLA Are you going to buy (5) for your mother?

KRISTIN No, I bought (6) something yesterday.

CARRIE Here's the map. Be back by 6pm.

KRISTIN AND LEYLA Okay.

(A little later)

LEYLA Oh no!

KRISTIN What's wrong?

LEYLA I can't find my ticket!

KRISTIN Don't worry. I'll get (7) for (8)

LEYLA Thanks Kristin.

2 Rewrite these sentences. Do not change the meaning.

I'll give you the map.

I'll give the map to you.

1 I want to buy my mother a present.

2 Can you get me a ticket?

3 You should write him a letter.

4 Why don't we send him this card?

5 I bought her something yesterday.

6 I'll show you the photos later.

3 Rewrite these sentences. Do not change the meaning.

I'll give the map to you.

I'll give you the map.

1 I bought a present for her yesterday.

2 I'm going to buy a satnav for my father.

3 Don't worry. I'll show the way to them.

4 Alexey sent a text message to Emma.

5 Can you give the map to them?

6 Did you give the tickets to her?