

Guided Writing

Reading

1 Read the text. What is it?

- a a blog
- b an email
- c a text message

2 Read the sentences and write T (true) or F (false).

- 1 Amber is going to have a party this weekend.
- 2 Amber thinks the wedding is going to be boring.
- 3 Her family are going to drive to Scotland.
- 4 The wedding is going to be on Thursday.
- 5 Amber isn't going to stay at Kim's house.
- 6 There aren't going to be many people at the wedding.

Language

Future plans and intentions

We use going to to talk about future plans and intentions.

I'm going to be at a wedding.

3 Look back at the email and answer the questions.

1 How many examples of going to can you find?

.....

2 What type of word follows going to?

.....

3 How do we form the negative?

.....

Prepositions

Prepositions are important when we talk about when or where something happens.

4 Cover the email. Complete the rules with the correct prepositions.

1 We use with days of the week.

2 We use with months of the year.

3 We use with places, such as cities and countries.

4 We use with places or events, such as parties or weddings.

4 We use with buildings and places, such as a friend's house, a restaurant etc.

5 Complete the sentences with the correct prepositions.

1 The weather is usually bad April.

2 The party is Saturday.

3 See you the party.

4 Sam lives Brighton.

5 Pierre's father is hospital.

Writing

6 Write an email to a friend, telling them what you are going to do this weekend.

CHECKLIST

REMEMBER TO

- use going to to talk about future plans and intentions.
- use the correct prepositions.
- describe your plans for the weekend.