

Guided Writing

Reading

1 Look at these signs. Where would you see these? .....

2 Read the email from Macarena. Which rules does she mention?

3 Read the sentences and write T (true) or F (false).

- 1 Macarena is starting a new school.
- 2 She thinks all the rules are silly.
- 3 There are some areas only for teachers.
- 4 You can't use your mobile phone in school.
- 5 Macarena was eating an apple in the classroom.

Pronouns and determiners

When we are talking about something we often use a pronoun or determiner the second or third time we talk about it, instead of repeating the original word.

5 Look at these examples from the email and answer the questions.

- 1 I started my new school today. It's quite nice ...
What does it's refer to?
a the school      b today
- 2 ... we mustn't run in the corridors, but that's good.
What does that's refer to?
a the corridor      b the rule
- 3 We mustn't use our phones in lessons, but we can use them during break time.
What does them refer to?
a mobile phones      b lessons

6 Choose the correct pronoun or determiner to complete each sentence.

- 1 Students mustn't run in the corridor. It / Them / They must walk.
- 2 Visitors must go to the reception when they arrive. It's / That's / They're next to the front entrance.
- 3 We must be quiet. It's / That's / Them because there is an exam in the school.

Language

Rules

We use must and mustn't to talk about rules.

4 Write sentences with must / mustn't for the signs in exercise 1.

- 1 You mustn't run in the corridor. .....
- 2 .....
- 3 .....
- 4 .....
- 5 .....
- 6 .....

Writing

7 Write an email to Macarena telling her about the rules in your school.

CHECKLIST

REMEMBER TO

- use must and mustn't.
- include three rules or more.
- use pronouns and determiners to refer to things.