

Guided Speaking Female sumo wrestlers

Wife

You are married and you have a sixteen-year-old daughter. She has recently told you that she doesn't want to go to university and instead wants to become a female sumo wrestler. She has also won a place at the prestigious Watanabe School of Sumo in Tokyo, where she would be trained by the best sumo wrestlers in the world.

You think that whilst it is unusual for a young girl to be interested in sumo wrestling, it is also important for a young woman to be happy with what she is doing and that this is the most important thing.

You are going to talk to your husband to try and persuade him that it is a good idea for her to go to Tokyo. Before you meet him think of a few reasons:
