

Worksheet 4

Present perfect simple and continuous; for and since

1 Complete the sentences with have, has, haven't, hasn't, have been and has been.

Affirmative

I / You / We / They (1) _____ worked on ten films.

He / She (2) _____ worked on ten films.

I (3) _____ working on the new Bond film for six weeks.

He / She (4) _____ working on the new Bond film for six weeks.

Negative

I / You / We / They (5) _____ lived here for very long.

He / She (6) _____ lived here for very long.

Questions

How long (7) _____ you / they known her?

How long (8) _____ she / he known you?

How long (9) _____ you / they (10) _____ working here?

How long (11) _____ she / he (12) _____ working here?

2 Complete the sentences with the correct words.

1 How long has / have you been working as a model?

2 George Clooney has been acting for / since 1979.

3 He has appeared / been appearing in many films.

4 Jennifer Lopez has sung / been singing since she was five.

5 J.K. Rowling has been writing for / since more than thirty years.

6 How many films have you made / been making?

3 Each sentence has one mistake. Correct the mistake.

1 How long have you making films?

2 He have appeared in three films.

3 She's been working as an actress since four years.

4 I hasn't been here very long.

5 They've known each other for 2003.

6 Steven Spielberg has been directed films since 1971.

Worksheet 4

4 Write complete sentences.

1 How long / you / working as an actor?

2 I / acting / five years.

3 He / not / made many films.

4 How many years / you / singing?

5 She / painting / she was ten.

6 I / not / taking photos for very long.
