Unit 7, Lesson 1, Exercise 1*MAN:

Welcome to Camp Jungle. Life in the jungle is not easy. But our suggestions can help you. So please listen carefully to the following information.

- 1 It is dangerous to swim in the lake. There are crocodiles. And they are very very hungry.
- 2 You must not cook in the tents. We don't want you to start a fire, burn your tents and cook yourselves. Do we?
- 3 No smoking anywhere in the camp.
- 4 Do not leave litter. Worms love litter. Use the bins.
- 5 There is no electricity in Camp Jungle, but you can get candles and matches from the camp shop. Come and see me.
- 6 The insects are a problem. Wear long trousers and keep your tent shut.
- 7 There are poisonous snakes in the area. Always check your shoes before you put them on.

Unit 7, Lesson 3, Exercise 6

TEACHER What did you think of the museum? Mark?

MARK The tickets cost eighteen euros. That's terrible. Eighteen euros for a dinosaur exhibition at a museum! It's too much! How can they ask people to pay that?

TEACHER Suzie?

SUZIE I was ready to leave after five minutes. I wasn't interested in anything. I much prefer shopping to visiting museums.

TEACHER Liza?

LIZA I didn't like walking around those big rooms. I was exhausted after half an hour. I wanted to sit down but there weren't any chairs.

TEACHER Tom?

TOM I loved it. I spent ages there but it wasn't long enough. I really learnt a lot and I want to go back.

TEACHER Maria?

MARIA I wanted to get out of the earthquake simulator. It was horrible. But the doors were shut and I had to stay to the end. I held hands with my friend. She said my face was really white. Afterwards I had to sit down and have a glass of water.

TEACHER Jack?

JACK It wasn't like any other museums. I've never been to a museum with simulators and animated displays before.
